International Dark Sky Week

April 2 - 8, 2024

WHEREAS, the San Luis Valley region is treasured by residents and visitors alike for having some of the darkest night skies in the United States; and,

WHEREAS, the experience of standing beneath a dark sky inspires feelings of wonder and awe, and may encourage interest in science and nature; and,

WHEREAS, San Luis Valley Great Outdoors and partners in the Sangre de Cristo Dark Sky Coalition are working to educate the community about light pollution and to apply to DarkSky International for the status of "International Dark Sky Reserve;" and,

WHEREAS, the solutions can be as easy as using light only where you need it, when you need it, with the minimum amount of light needed, with the appropriate color temperature, while shielding lights and directing light downward; and,

WHEREAS, education about the night sky helps our community improve and maintain its unique rural character, neighborhood livability, safety, and quality of life; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that, I, Ty Coleman, Mayor of the City of Alamosa and on behalf of the entire City Council proclaim April 2 - 8, 2024 as in the City of Alamosa. During this week, I encourage all residents to learn about the benefits of the night sky to our community.

Adopted this 3rd day of April, 2024

Proclamation

Sexual Assault Awareness Month

In the City of Alamosa, Colorado, in recognition of Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) we call attention to the fact that sexual violence is widespread and impacts every person in every community. SAAM aims to raise public awareness about sexual abuse, harassment, and assault and educate communities about how to be involved in prevention.

This year's SAAM campaign theme, Building Connected Communities, calls on each of us to work together to prevent sexual abuse, harassment, and assault. We believe when anyone experiences sexual violence, every community member is affected. We must strive to build more connected, respectful, and inclusive communities to promote our collective well-being and protect against the risk of sexual violence. We believe all of our communities will be safer and stronger by making them more equitable for people of all gender identities and sexual orientations, races and ethnic backgrounds, ages, faiths, and abilities.

WHEREAS, over 53% of women and over 29% of men reported experiencing contact sexual violence in their lifetime (Chen, J., Khatiwada, S., Chen, M. S., Smith, S. G., Leemis, R. W., Friar, N., Basile, K. C., and Kresnow, M. (2023). The National Intimate Partner and Sexual Violence Survey (NISVS) 2016/2017: Report on Victimization by Sexual Identity. Atlanta, GA: National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

<http://www.cdc.gov/violenceprevention/pdf/nisvs/nisvsReportonSexualIdentity.pdf>); and

WHEREAS, most men and women across all sexual identities who experienced contact sexual violence reported that the person who harmed them was someone they knew (Chen, et al., 2023); and

WHEREAS, as such, we must strive to create strong, connected communities that take care of one another and make decisions to ensure the safety and well-being of others to end sexual violence; and

WHEREAS, The Building Connected Communities campaign is an opportunity for our community to join with others around the world in committing to prevent sexual abuse, assault, and harassment.

We encourage our community to take action to prevent sexual violence. April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month, and each day of the year is an opportunity to create change for the future.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that, I, Ty Coleman, Mayor of the City of Alamosa, and on behalf of the entire City Council, do hereby proclaim April 2024 as Sexual Assault Awareness Month in the City of Alamosa.

▢ Child Abuse Prevention Month Proclamation	Proclamations

Child Abuse Prevention Month

April 1, 2024

WHEREAS, in Federal fiscal year 2022, nearly 3.1 million children received either an investigation response or alternative response; and

WHEREAS, child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone; and

WHEREAS, our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of the [State or jurisdiction]; and

WHEREAS, child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that have lasting consequences for victims of abuse; and

WHEREAS, protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of children; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the partnerships created between child welfare professionals, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses, law enforcement agencies, and families; and

WHEREAS, communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that create strong and thriving children and families; and

WHEREAS, we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment; and

WHEREAS, prevention remains the best defense for our children and families.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tyler Coleman, Mayor of the City of Alamosa, do hereby proclaim April 2024 as NATIONAL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH in the City of Alamosa and urge all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.
